

PLEASE PLEASE ME

hey you it's only after dark, that you're paralyzed surprised how hard it is to make only second place?

what would you say if we made an exception just today?
please please me
i beg you please

for you
the only thing to do is to disappear and still the only thing you try is to be near what can i say?

it's too late,
it's out of the question, just today
please please me

so today
i bet you'll run away
so today
i bet you'll run away

DO WHAT YOU DO

we seem so small and still and gone so blue, so blue from far something's right when nothing's wrong so true so true
so far

i'll let you go, let you do what you do please let me know, that you do what you do

See your eyes so black and blue so soft, so hard from far something's right when nothing's wrong

so far

do yeah what you do
do what you do yeah what you do, do what you do

HESITATE

i could call you every tuesday when the days of us have passed when that place we shared in secret was a peaceful world we both could understand well, we're continents apart plate tectonics in our hearts i could call you every monday when it's probably too late if i only was much faster and would get things right before everybody's gone well, we're continents apart

and now the time is running late but i can't stop to hesitate

people always
people always
people always hesitate people always, always, always
people always

I could call you any day now I'm sure you'll understand but you know the world

people always.....

EVERYTHING IS GOOD

as long as i can stay out in the woods
everything is good

i'd be the happiest someone if you could ever see me
i'd be the happiest someone
if you could ever love me

everything is good

everything is good

if you could ever see me cry
oh...
i'd be the happiest someone
oh...

FEAR THE LIGHT

we took off into the night until the stars were fading long ago and far away when we started hiding there's a truth to every lie you just have to want it fools are better off inside cause the lions fear the light we're better off inside there's no reason to forget as long as we're still fighting will we ever figure out how to stop the bleeding?

there's a hole in every wall as long as we keep talking how we ever gonna learn that the lions fear the light?

how we ever gonna learn that lesson?

move on, move on, move on happily move on, move on, move on happily

SUBSTANCE

the thing that keeps us safe is a little bit of substance and substance is a fading thing it appears in many shapes in pills and love in jars or popsongs substance is a fading thing but it's all so wrong

if we carry on it's not for very long it doesn't run that deep
it's not the thing that comes for cheap it's the bitter stuff that makes the body burn the lack of substance's pushing through pushing through
pushing through

once i'm the the ride there's no blinking to my thinking maybe i will learn someday suddenly awake everything seems oh so clear now how could i assume that you would stay?

THE SILENCE OF LOVE

life's like a house of cards hope's in a cup made of china it's all going to fall apart we're lost in the silence ahead so much more to say but we're lost in the silence instead you're long gone but treasured now let's paint that silence blue

SO DEAD CALM LIKE TODAY

YOU'VE NEVER BEEN IN YOUR WORDS BEFORE hang on, it's over soon don't stab me yet love i'm bleeding out, anyway

there's so much more to say we're lost in the silence instead

but we're lost in the silence of love we're long gone but treasured now

LOOPS IN A JAR

you don't have to go why don't you just stay? you don't have to leave me

ROMANTIC ARCHEOLOGY

hey, i only wanted to bind

i never thought you would mind, no no well, there's just a fragment i need but i don't have a degree in your romantic archeology archeology

my apologies

now, we're only relics and stones hieroglyphics and bones ancient thoughts on the phone, oh no there's just a fragment i need

PANIC

Well i tried and tried to pretend that i was doing right but i was going wrong did i all that for nothing?

for nothing?

We are side by side still trying to talk to each other but we don't find words did we all that for nothing?

for nothing?

NOW I'M SITTING INSIDE BUT

I DON'T WANNA HIDE

BUT YOU'RE GONE AND YOU'RE NOT COMING BACK

AND I FEEL LIKE I'M NOTHING

I SAID I'M NOTHING

WHEN YOU WERE STILL AROUND

I COULDN'T SAY I LOVE YOU
